FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kansas City, MO – Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., Omega Iota Zeta and Rho Sigma Chapters welcomed nine new members into the sisterhood in April, 2013.

Rho Sigma Chapter was chartered on the campus of University of Missouri - Kansas City (UMKC) in 2006. The sorority's Membership Intake Process (MIP) had not been conducted on the campus since 2009. With the help of their advising chapter, Omega Iota Zeta, Rho Sigma Chapter resurfaced with the vibrant and refreshing introduction of eight (8) finer women now members of Rho Sigma Chapter. Membership Intake Coordinator, Felicia Robinson, was asked about how she felt about new members, she stated, "...I am excited about the growth of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc and the entire Rho Sigma chapter. With the completion of the spring MIP, these 8 young ladies are certainly ready to be about the business of Zeta. They are very optimistic and enthusiastic about continuing the legacy of the Rho Sigma chapter on UMKC campus.

While the undergraduate chapter was celebrating their newest additions, Omega Iota Zeta also had cause to celebrate inducting a new member into their chapter as well. The chapter was also excited about adding to the organization and also having another member to help carry out the vision and goals of the chapter. Since its charter in March of 2012, Omega Iota Zeta has grown substantially and part of it is due to accepting and grooming new members for the work of Zeta. One chapter member stated, "Adding to the sisterhood is always a good thing and the passion of these young ladies will help further what we are trying to do as a chapter and more importantly as an organization."
