Local members of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. elected as Midwestern Regional Officers

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kansas City, MO – Members of Omega Iota Zeta Graduate Chapter and Rho Sigma Undergraduate attended the 71st Midwestern Regional Conference April 11-14, 2013 at the Overland Park Sheraton and Convention Center in Overland Park, KS. Both chapters received awards during the conference. Omega Iota Zeta received Midwestern Regional Chapter of the Year and won Second Place in the Zeta Stroll off Competition and Rho Sigma Chapter received Highest Chapter Grade Point Average and Largest Membership Intake for Undergraduate chapters registered and attending the conference. Members of each chapter were also elected by peers to hold offices in the region for terms beginning in the new sorority year. Deanne Moore, of Omega Iota Zeta Chapter was elected to serve as the Midwestern Regional Representative to the National Nominating Committee and Soror Katherine Ann Boyice was elected as the Regional Assistant Secretary. When asked about serving on the Regional Level, Moore stated, "I am eager to serve and looking forward to working on the Regional level." Boyice agreed stating "I'm a Zeta and we work, I'm excited to serve at this level". Both believe "When Zeta Calls We'll Answer One and All" and answer the call they did. Members from both chapters are proud to have this representation on the Regional level. Moore and Boyice will be serving their respective terms under the leadership of Midwestern Regional Director, Samantha Hughes.

Omega Iota Zeta sponsors Rho Sigma Undergraduate Chapter. Established on the campus of the University of Missouri--Kansas City in 2006, the "Resilient" Rho Sigma Chapter strives to uphold the organization's historical principles while diligently working to make a strong impact on the college campus and the community. The chapter continues to provide an active contribution to the betterment of our community, to uplift fellow peers academically and emotionally, and provide an accurate display of finer womanhood for all.

On March 16, 2012, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. expanded and gained new ground by the chartering of Omega Iota Zeta Chapter in Kansas City, Missouri.
